REPORT

OF THE

SUPERINTENDING SCHOOL COMMITTEE.

DISTRICT NO. 1.

Miss Nellie A. Knowlton, Teacher. The success of this lady in another district last year, led us to expect a very good school. Nor were we disappointed. The order was good and the recitations correct in the main. The attendance at the winter term was increased on account of the building of the Railroad. This made the teacher's duties more arduous.—The closing examination indicated a very commendable condition of things.

DISTRICT NO. 2.

Miss Mary J. Dutton, Teacher. This school has increased in the number of pupils since last year. The single term of fourteen weeks embraced a very stormy period, and the roads were full of snow drifts. The teacher has labored to do her duty and the closing examination gave evidence of much work through the term.

DISTRICT NO. 3.

Miss Ella C. Ware, Teacher, Summer Term. Miss Ware sustained her reputation as a good teacher. Your Committee were well pleased with the advancement of her pupils.

Mr. Lawton T. Hadley, Teacher, Winter Term. This gentleman came to the work with no practical experience, but as he proceeded it became evident that he was equal to the duty. His school was in good working order.

DISTRICT NO. 4.

Miss Hattie E. Weston, Teacher. This teacher won the love of her pupils and the respect of their parents. Her success as a teacher of reading is worthy of notice.

DISTRICT NO. 5.

Miss Mary A. Tenney, Teacher. Both terms were taught in a very acceptable manner. This is a small school and was well governed.

DISTRICT NO. 6.

Mr. William. H. Weston, Teacher, Summer Term. In this school we had an excellent illustration of the benefits of having a teacher whose education is not limited to the simple requirements of the law. Mr. Weston has a fund of information and a faculty of making it useful.

Miss Nellie A. Hadley, Teacher, Winter Term. This lady taught with more, if possible, than her usual good success.

DISTRICT NO. 7.

Miss Nellie A. Hadley, Teacher, Summer Term. The scholars made an extra effort to have a good school and were successful. The presence of Miss Hadley guarantees a good school.

Miss Jennie M. Nesmith, Teacher, Winter Term. Her style of teaching differs from any other teacher in town. We commend it to their attention. Thoroughness marked every step. There could but one result follow, viz: a first-class school.

DISTRICT NO. 8.

Miss Carrie A. Parker, Teacher. Miss Parker is lady-like, self possessed and well fitted to instruct. One or two instances of marked progress were noticed among her few scholars.

DISTRICT NO. 9.

Miss Lettie W. Goodhue, Teacher. This teacher gave herself conscientiously to the work and having had experience, and possessing natural ability, she carried her pupils through the school year successfully.

The example of No. 7 in refurnishing their school room is worthy of imitation. The new seats and desks are the most convenient we have ever seen. Pupils can occupy them thro' the day with the smallest amount of fatigue.

It is a noticeable fact that our teachers are all residents of Hancock, and six of them have done all the teaching of the year in the districts where they have taught. We would again remind you that the districts are too many. And we are gratified that the question of reducing them has been discussed considerably and is being considered still further.

Scholars not absent or tardy during the year: L. Kate Felch, Lena L. Tenney, Edgar B. Felch, Arthur T. Felch, Mary E. Weston.

Not absent or tardy,—Summer Term: Ida B. Newell, Emma M. Tyrrel, Annie M. Lindsey, Nettie I. Stearns, Jennie M. Willard, Elmer L. Cummings, Nellie L. Davis, Emma S. Davis, Ella F. Whittaker, Arthur C. Whittaker, Mylon E. Whittaker, Eddie T. Welch, Mattie E. Lakin, Bertie G. Lakin, Gilman S. Murphy.

Not absent or tardy,—Winter Term: Waldo M. Hayward, Willie W. Hayward, Bertie G. Stearns, Arthur M. Hayward, Emma C. Davis, Ida E. Goodhue, Eugene M. Ware, Warren F. Thorning.

Willis E. Knight, janitor, fall term,
1875,	4 50
Wm. Weston, for wood,	14 25
First Congregational society, for rent,	22 00
C.H. Ware, janitor, spring term, 1876,	5 00
A. D. Tuttle, broom and postal cards,	1 40

Fall term, 1875, commenced Aug. 16, and closed Oct. 29.—
Whole number of scholars, 47. Spring term, 1876, commenced Feb. 14, closed April 28. Whole number of scholars, 38.

Your committee are of the opinion that the school the past year has fully sustained its former high standing. The great point obtained in this school is the fact, that it is within the reach of every scholar in town. There is not a scholar in town of suitable age to attend the school, who may not, if so disposed receive its instructions, and prepare themselves for a life of usefulness, as teachers in our common schools, or in any other position desired, or tendered. It places a good practical education, sufficient for all the necessities of life, within the means of all, and were it not for its advantages, a large majority of our scholars would be deprived of such an education as the times demand.

District No. 1, A. D. Tuttle; Dis. No. 2, Luther C. Dutton; Dis. No. 3, John W. Coolidge; Dis. No. 4, John H. Felch, Clerk; Dis. No. 5, Alden S. Wood; Dis. No. 6, Joshua S. Lakin; Dis. No. 7, Edward R. Danforth; Dis. No. 8, Asa Simonds, Chairman; Dis. No. 9, William Weston.

We, the undersigned, have examined the foregoing account, presented by the Hancock High School Committee, for the year 1875-6, and find the same correctly cast and fully vouched.
